REGULAR MEETING OF LAUREL RUN BOROUGH COUNCIL – AUGUST 19, 2025 (con't)

OLD BUSINESS: A discussion was held regarding the proposed new Borough Building/Fire Hall Feasibility Study suggestions made by the Architect. Shandra, John, and Joe Tavaglione all agree that the two-story version was better.

There is no update on the Pole Barn grant monies. The Borough must decide on a new project to apply for the funds. It was decided that a new HVAC system in the Borough Building, utilizing propane fuel would be sought after. Shandra will contact Tommy Kearns of Barry Isett to work up a quote for submission. If it is under the maximum monies available, The Borough will into new walls and a floor and lighting.

Atty. Menn will prepare a “Food Truck Ordinance” to present to Council at the next meeting.

John Mosley said a representative from Laurel Run Estates contacted him and asked about the possibility to let temporary motor homes on some of the lots that are too small for the standard mobile home size. They should contact Barry Isett, who is The Boroughs zoning administrator for an answer.

A motion to adjourn was made by John Mosley, seconded by Shandra Kisailus.

Respectfully submitted,

Cathy Pockevich
Borough Manager
